

Joshua Christian Wyatt
1336 W 122nd St
Los Angeles, California, 90044
joshuawyatt2018@gmail.com
(832) 527-4195
July 3rd, 2023

Subject: Contesting Parking Ticket Issued on July 3rd, 2023

To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing to contest a parking ticket that was issued to me on July 3rd, 2023, for an alleged parking violation. I kindly request a thorough review of my case, as circumstances surrounding the incident warrant the dismissal of this ticket.

Firstly, I would like to highlight that the issuing officer instructed me to contest the ticket if I believed it was unjust. Their statement led me to believe that there might be a legitimate reason to contest the ticket, and therefore, I am taking this opportunity to present my case.

Secondly, I was completely unaware of the parking regulation in place during the July 4th weekend. The country's regulations dictate that parking during this period is considered a violation. As a law-abiding citizen, I try to adhere to all parking regulations, but I was uninformed about this restriction. Due to my regular work schedule, I am usually occupied on Monday mornings and was unaware of these facts until after the ticket was issued.

I request leniency in this matter, as my unawareness of the specific parking regulations during the July 4th weekend was unintentional. If I had been aware of this regulation, I would have made alternative arrangements for parking or chosen a different location altogether. I value and respect the parking regulations that are put in place to maintain order and safety within our community.

Considering the circumstances described above, I respectfully request that the parking ticket be dismissed. I have always been a responsible citizen and have never had any parking violations in the past. This situation resulted from a lack of awareness and not a deliberate violation of parking regulations.

Enclosed with this letter, you will find a copy of the parking ticket in question and any supporting documentation that may assist in my case. Upon reviewing this information, I trust that you will recognize the extenuating circumstances and exercise fairness and discretion in resolving this matter.

I appreciate your time and attention to this matter. If there are any further details or documentation required to support my case, please do not hesitate to contact me using the provided contact information. I look forward to a favorable resolution to this issue.

Thank you for your understanding and consideration.

Sincerely,
Joshua Christian Wyatt